A CLOSE SHAVE.

Many of Them Happening Every Day but Soon Forgotten.

Close shaves would be of more frequent occurrence but for the tender faces of many men, which will not permit of shaving often. Heretofore, nothing has been said in these columns about posium, a new skin discovery, in connection with its use after shaving. Its publicity and sales have been confined almost exclusively to its remarkable properties as an eczema cure; it stops the itching at once and cures the cases in a few days.

WORK ON NEWHOUSE HOTEL

Suspended Temporarily to Give Architect Time to Perfect Plans—Record on Two Buildings.

To have designed the Boston block and the Newhouse building so perfectly that they have settled only a fraction of an inch during the two years that they have been in the course of construction is the record established in Salt Lake by Henry Ives Cobb, the New York architect. It is not unusual for buildings as large as the Salt Lake skyscrapers to settle from 8 to 10 inches during the period of construction.

BUICK CAR WINS BIG AUTO RACE

Fifty Thousand Persons Witness Contest at Crown Point, Ind.

FRENCHMAN RUNS WINNER

Louis Chevrolet Drives Winning Car Through With Three Cylinders in Use.

Crown Point, Ind., June 19.—After a bruising and nerve-racking contest and the most spectacular in the history of automobile road racing in the United States, Louis Chevrolet, the "Demon Frenchman," driving a forty-horse-power Buick car, won the race for the trophy over Crown Point-Lowell course today by the narrow margin of one minute and five seconds. As he flashed by the stations along the course the news of his location, transmitted by wire to the judges' stand and through the watchers, wrought them to a climax of enthusiasm. Chevrolet occupied eight hours, one minute, thirty-nine seconds to travel 355.65 miles, an average of 44.4 miles an hour.

In the eleventh lap Chevrolet broke a valve in a cylinder in such a manner that it could not be repaired, and he was forced to run the rest of the day with three cylinders, which made his performance all the more remarkable.

A Shipment of Buicks Received by Consolidated Wagon & Machine Company Yesterday.

To offset this misfortune in a measure, the superior skill with which he and his mechanic handled the oil cans during a stop at the repairing pits gained him time of immense value later in the day.

The most conspicuous feature of today's race, from a technical point of view, was the wonderfully consistent performance of Chevrolet. From the start his average scarcely varied eighteen seconds. Denison being put out of the running, Robertson took up the task of beating the leading Buick, and, after running a close second for three laps, jumped into the lead in the tenth and held it twice around again. Seeing Chevrolet worn down and all but vanquished by the terrific pace he had set himself, his assistant at the repair pit repeatedly signaled him to give up, but he declined, and, summoning all his strength, changed into the lead in the fourteenth lap and was never thereafter headed.

ROAD IN BAD CONDITION.

The race was run over a road that was in a terrible condition, and yet the dozen drivers who faced the starter willingly took their lives in their hands and sent their cars tearing around the course at a mile-a-minute speed, turning sharp corners and plowing up the rough places with never a thought of danger. Luckily, no one was injured. Narrow escapes were numerous.

Weather Forecast for Today: Generally Fair.

CATARRH MICROBES

A Dead Microbe Is the Best Microbe

—Hyomel Kills Them All.

Hyomel (pronounced High-o-me) is a killer of catarrh germs, because when you breathe it in, its antiseptic and germicide properties reach every nook and crevice of the mucous membrane, from the mouth and nose deep into the lungs.

Hyomel brings the Australian forests of pine and eucalyptus to your home. It is made of the active principles extracted from these trees.

No one who lives in or near these forests suffers from catarrh. No one who breathes in Hyomel, the real forest air of Australia, will have catarrh for long after the treatment starts.

If you want to cure catarrh, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, or relieve consumption, try Hyomel, the common-sense cure, the cure that reaches the spot.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles of Hyomel, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure, or money back. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold and guaranteed in Salt Lake City by F. C. Schramm.

Satisfying the Thirst

With such a great variety of summer beverages on the market nowadays, it is very easy to satisfy the thirst at the expense of health.

Avoid drinks that chill the stomach, carry germs into the body, depress the nerves, cause biliousness, or upset the digestive organs.

FISHER BEER

Produces none of these evil effects. Upon the other hand, it is decidedly healthful. While a splendid thirst quencher and a deliciously enticing beverage, it is also a tonic, a body bracer and a nutritive agent of recognized value.
